The U.S. Copyright Law of 1976 (P.L. 94-553) makes it necessary to obtain permission from authors to publish and republish their articles and related information (such as images) in the Societies' publications. Permission to publish and republish does not constitute transfer of copyright. Furthermore, the author(s) retain(s) the authority and the responsibility to decide how to respond to future requests for use of the article and related information (such as images) submitted to the Societies ("The Work") by other persons or organizations. In signing this document the undersigned warrants that: (1) the Work is original and that he/she is the author(s) of the Work; (2) the author has obtained permission from any and all persons who have contributed to the Work, including but not limited to, those who have produced any part of the Work, to its publication, and to sign this document; (3) that consent has been obtained from any persons shown in any photos or graphic depictions accompanying the Work; (4) the Societies and/or publisher shall not be held liable for editorial and printing errors and errors in technical or other content of the Work; (5) the Work and all information included therein and/or therewith and its publication or republication by the Societies or any agent does not infringe upon or violate any right, title or interest of any third party nor will its publication violate any obligation of any author not to disclose, and (6) the author(s) jointly and severally are hereby bound to and shall indemnify and hold harmless the Societies and publisher and their agents from and against any and all claims, causes of action, damages, loss, liability, proceedings, judgments, orders, awards and costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees), arising from or related to the Work and/or portions thereof and/or the publication or republication thereof, and/or for any breach of the foregoing warranties. This signed form must be returned to the Headquarters Office before the Work can be published.

By signing this document, the author(s) further stipulate that this Work has not been published elsewhere and that it is not currently under review by any other publication. The author(s) further agree that until such time that ASA, CSSA, and/or SSSA or its or their agent publish(es) this Work, or officially decide(s) not to publish it, and issue(s) a written letter of acceptance or release (rejection), this Work will not be published or offered to any other publisher.
